About Badagarang

'Badagarang' (Bad-a-ga-rang) means Eastern Grey Kangaroo in Dharug language.

Badagarang was established in 2021 in Newcastle, NSW by Mikaela Cameron - a proud Dharug woman. Mikaela (Artist: M. J. Badagarang) has a strong passion for culture, creative arts and education. Using her knowledges and art, she's dedicated to Closing to Gap between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people.

Recent evidence of middens in Victoria has now placed Aboriginal People here on Australian soil for over 120,000 years, making this beautiful culture the oldest living culture in the world.

Badagarang provides corporate workshops that are tailed to individual companies and offer custom artworks to visually represent your business.

"I deeply enjoy connecting with people and sharing my culture with others. It's my absolute dream to run cultural workshops and create visual artworks to express individual stories."
